e. On 23 November, six members of the Office of Security qualified as Red Cross instructors in Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation. This permits in house instruction capability in a vital area of employee safety.

f. On 24 November, a written reply was sent by the Office of Security in response to a request from the Office of the Vice President that a vault at the Rockefeller Hills be accredited for permanent retention of classified material, including codeword information. The substance of the reply was that the facility is secure, but that the Agency does not have authority to rule on the propriety of transferring the material away from U. S. Government control.

g. During the reporting period, arrangements were made to assign a security officer to the Plains, Georgia area to act as a control officer for compartmented information to be reviewed by the President-Elect. The arrangement will involve liaison with the Secret Service and the officer will be available to assist other Agency representatives who visit the area.
